DECEMBER LUNCHEON PROGRAM

Annual Fundraiser: A Luncheon Buffet Cruising on the Marina Jack II

Join us on Saturday, December 3rd as we embark from Marina Jack's on a luncheon cruise honoring two worthy Sarasota Democrats and raising money to continue the Club's outreach efforts into the 2012 election year.

We're thinking outside the box this year, and instead of a formal Sunday night dinner, our fundraiser will feature sightseeing and socializing along with the introduction of the 1st Annual Carroll Buchanan Award to be presented to Sarasota Democrat and activist Adam Tebrugge.

Attendees will enjoy a relaxing cruise through the beautiful intercoastal waters, a delicious buffet lunch, outstanding views and excellent service. The air conditioned salons and open air outside decks provide a beautiful setting to enjoy the waters of the Gulf of Mexico. On the Marina Jack II every seat is a window seat!

The money raised at this event is essential to our continued efforts to organize events and fund projects that further Democratic causes in our community.

EVENT DETAILS: See back page

NOTE: This event is on a boat where there are ramps and steps to navigate. Some seating options require climbing a flight of stairs.

Lunch will be a buffet. A cash bar will be available.

No Luncheon at Laurel Oak in December

Please note that we will not be meeting at Laurel Oak Country Club on December 10. We hope you can join us for the luncheon cruise on December 3 instead.

We will return to our usual luncheon schedule in January with a luncheon at Laurel Oak on Saturday, January 14.

Last Month: Susannah Randolph on "Pink Slip Rick"

When I first heard of the "Pink Slip Rick" campaign, I was excited by the idea of recalling Governor Rick Scott. When I learned that Florida law didn't give us that right, I wondered why we were wasting our energy on a hopeless mission. After hearing Susannah Randolph, Executive Director of Florida Watch Action and the driving force behind "Pink Slip Rick," I became a convert.

As Randolph explained it at the club's November luncheon, Pink Slip Rick is not about recalling Scott. Instead, it's about learning from the Republican messaging machine and Karl Rove. When we identify our opponents' strengths and use messaging to turn them into weaknesses, we gain an advantage. That's what "Pink Slip Rick" does — and Rick Scott has been so accommodating.

What is Rick Scott's strength? Why did people vote for him? He promised JOBS! Putting Florida back to work was all the voters heard. But once Scott was elected, he began cutting jobs and laying people off. And, contrary to his campaign promises, Scott's policies have not resulted in the creation of new jobs in Florida.

So, Susannah Randolph decided to make Scott the poster child for pink slips. Using social media, Randolph is able to quickly organize activists to take over Scott's media events. For example, when Scott co-opted Bob Graham's work-days with a stint at a donut shop, Randolph's team showed

What do we include in the newsletter?

Democrats have a lot to say – and the Board encourages club members to say it with articles or letters to the editor for our newsletter!

Unfortunately, there is limited space. Dealing with this dilemma, the Board adopted the following list of policies and procedures:

Articles and letters to the editor from club members will be accepted on a space available basis using the following priorities:

1. Local information of immediate importance to club members
2. Articles or letters from members who have not written recently
3. Articles or letters relating to state issues.
4. Articles or letters relating to national issues.

Due to limited space, articles and letters should be written as concisely as possible (between 100 and 150 words) and once submitted, may be edited. Letters to the editor should contain statements of proposed action by the membership.

Submission Deadline:

Third Saturday of the month for the next issue

President's Column

Dear Members and Friends,

We've been talking a lot the past several months about the "upcoming" election year. It's hard to believe that by the time you read this we will almost be through another Thanksgiving season, with Christmas, Hanukah and Kwanzaa just a few weeks away.

The good news is that the election season is no longer something we are anticipating as a future event. It's something we are in right now. We are officially less than one year away from going to the polls (or mailing in our ballots) to re-elect President Obama and Senator Nelson, and to replace Vern Buchanan with Keith Fitzgerald as our Congressman. Based on the incredible turnout at every Democratic event I've attended the past few months, it's obvious that Democrats in Sarasota are motivated and ready to get to work.

The Club has been going nonstop all this year with events and outreach, and has no plans to slow down. In addition to our monthly luncheon program, we now offer a regularly scheduled evening event every other month, known as Wine, Cheese & Politics. On the alternate months we host a free evening event for socializing, enabling Democrats to come together to mingle with like-minded neighbors. All of these efforts continue to attract new people and increase our presence in Sarasota.

In addition to events, we exhibit at festivals and expos every chance we get. In these venues, we not only meet Democrats who had no idea Sarasota had an active Democratic club and party, but the rest of the population (and you know who I mean) sees that the Democratic Party is alive and well and making itself very visible in Sarasota County.

Events and outreach are what the Club does best, but we haven't stopped there. We are continually looking for creative ways in which to help the Sarasota County Democratic Party without violating the financial rules that we must comply with. This year we have found a project that is enabling us to greatly contribute to making a difference in next year's election.

I wrote about the Vote by Mail mailing last month, and I'm coming back to it again this month because its significance is great. The Florida Democratic Party has mandated all county-level Democratic Parties in Florida to focus on getting every Democrat to sign up to Vote by Mail. There is much to be done, but this one effort could be the defining factor in getting Democrats elected next November. Vote by Mail is a proven method of getting out the vote. Some analysis of the mailings has been done, and we are seeing huge increases in the number of people registered to Vote by Mail since the project started. The mail pieces combined with the phone calls made from Democratic Headquarters are having a huge impact. We want to continue this effort but need help from you to fund it.

A great opportunity for you to do that and have some fun, is to join us on the Luncheon Cruise on Marina Jack II on Saturday, December 3rd. Many of you are faithful attendees of our monthly luncheons and we hope to see all of you on the cruise. This is our major fundraiser of the year and we need your support. If you are unable to attend, please consider making a donation.

I'll look forward to seeing everyone on December 3rd and again on January 10th when we welcome Florida Democratic Party Chair Rod Smith and his wife, Dee Dee, to our Wine, Cheese & Politics event. We will return to Laurel Oak Country Club on January 14th for our regular luncheon meeting.

Enjoy the holiday season with your friends and family!

Democratically yours,

Mary

From Your Membership Chair

Attendance at our events and your membership dues and donations are very important to the Democratic Club of Sarasota — especially now in this crucial election year. They enable us to fund Outreach events and Vote-By-Mail efforts.

I want to stress the importance of how well your club and the Sarasota County Democratic Party (SCDP) are communicating and collaborating in the countdown to the election. Many of our members volunteer at Party Headquarters. Many are also active in Party leadership (the Democratic Executive Committee, or DEC) as Area Leaders, Precinct Captains and Associate Members. Democratic Club of Sarasota members know how important the upcoming election year will be for us in Sarasota County and also how important it is for us to continue to collaborate with the SCDP.

The Florida Democratic Party (FDP) has asked Florida Democrats to focus their energies and priorities in two specific areas:

1. Increasing voter participation in the Hispanic/Latino and African American communities.
2. Signing up Democrats to Vote By Mail and making sure they follow through and vote their “absentee ballots.”

Your club is committed to expanding our Outreach Program and working with the SCDP to implement a Vote-By-Mail Plan.

Our next big Outreach event is “Embrace Change” in Newtown on Jan 14th. Mark your calendar for an evening of dining, dancing and entertainment. The cost is $40 per person. Democrats usually fill two or three tables at this fun event. The music is great! Your participation helps to build the Democratic presence in the Newtown community and makes a difference for a worthy cause. For more information, contact me at jdv.devries8@gmail.com.

Why a Vote-By-Mail program? Republicans are great at voting by mail. In the November 2010 election, Republicans in Sarasota County mailed in 15,000 ballots and Democrats only 8,000. Since then, the Republican-controlled Florida Legislature passed HB 1355 which makes it more difficult to vote in person. Until that law is overturned, we have to work especially hard to encourage Democrats to vote by mail.

All prior requests to vote by mail expired after the 2010 General Election, so we need Democrats to renew their requests in addition to getting others to sign up for the first time. Currently, 5378 Republicans are enrolled to vote by mail. Only 3679 Democrats are enrolled. We need your help to close the gap.

The Club wants to continue to fund Vote-By-Mail and Outreach events. We simply cannot do it without your financial support. Your membership dues and donations and attendance at our events will make this happen. Thank you for your support!

And, as always, if you have any membership questions, want to share Outreach event venues, or have membership ideas, please do not hesitate to contact me at 320-8825 or joanne@sarasotadems.com.

JoAnne DeVries

A Crowd Shows Up To Support Keith Fitzgerald at the November Wine, Cheese & Politics

When Keith Fitzgerald spoke at the Sarasota County Democratic Party's October meeting, he had just announced that he was running against Vern Buchanan to represent us in the United States Congress.

Keith echoed our frustration that there are people like Buchanan in Congress who believe their dislike of President Obama excuses them from addressing the problems facing American families today. He spoke about our shared values and our belief that "this country belongs to the people." He said his "gut feeling is that people are waking up" and that they're waiting for someone to tell them the truth.

Most importantly, Keith said his running for Congress isn't about him; it's about us. It's about making sure our representative is looking out for our interests.

In the intervening weeks, Keith has apparently heard from Democrats who were beaten down by Democratic losses in 2010. His message at the Democratic Club's November Wine, Cheese & Politics aimed at shaking Democrats out of defeatism. It's our job to make sure none of us gives up without a fight.

"Yes We Can"

The Republican Party knows Keith can win — and they're frightened. Shortly after Keith arrived in Washington with over one hundred likely Democratic candidates for a Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC) conference, the National Republican Congressional Committee issued press releases attacking him and only a handful of other Democrats. Keith's record against the Republicans in the Florida House must be well known. Keith reminded us that, although he supported and helped improve worthwhile Republican bills, he didn't back down when fighting against bad legislation.

Keith's reputation and past performance for the people of Sarasota and Manatee means that his election isn't about Democrats versus Republicans. If you look at election results from his campaign in 2010, you'll discover that a significant percentage of registered Republicans must have voted for him. Voters recognize that he works for people, not special interests.

Admittedly, Vern Buchanan has lots of money. And Keith's campaign will require a lot of money. But we won't be in this battle alone. Keith will have the resources of the DCCC behind him — if he can demonstrate that he has enough local support to wage a credible campaign. So, whether we continue with one of the most corrupt politicians in Congress or whether we elect one of the most intelligent, it's up to us.

How we can help

- Go to Keith's web site, www.GoFitzGo.com, and register as a supporter.
- Make a campaign contribution online or write a check to Keith Fitzgerald for Congress, PO Box 3708, Sarasota, FL 34230. Please include your phone number. The federal campaign contribution limit is $2,500 per person before the "primary" and another $2,500 after. Keith will appreciate any amount you can afford to give.
- Host a house party to introduce Keith to your friends and neighbors. Give him an opportunity to turn those who don't know him into his friends and supporters.

Working together, we can achieve the kind of government we deserve.

Last Month: Randolph sticks it to Rick up to order donuts with pink sprinkles as they handed Scott pink slips.

At first, the media didn't know what to think of these events. Randolph made sure her team captured the action on video. With effective editing to tell the story the right way, the videos "went viral" and led to coverage by national media like The Rachel Maddow Show. Now Florida media understands the Pink Ship message and Scott's disapproval ratings have jumped from 22% when the campaign started to about 50% now.

How will that help us in 2012?

Randolph reminded us that, when the GOP presidential candidates were in Florida, none of them wanted to share the stage with Rick Scott. "Because Rick Scott is so toxic, many Independents are less likely to consider a Republican presidential candidate."

We need to keep Scott's poll numbers low. Then, we need to attach other Republicans to him. For example, publish photos of local Republicans with Rick Scott and cite voting records supporting Scott's policies.

Randolph's closing message: When voters go to the polls and they see an "R" next to a candidate's name, we want them to instantly think, "Rick Scott." That's how Rick Scott will be "the progressive's best friend" in 2012.

—Debbie Trice

Dr. Judith Wilcox: A Living Legacy

Dr. Judith Wilcox is, in her own words, “super politically active.” A lifelong Democrat, her activism has gone well beyond the partisan realm, especially in the fields of education, African-American affairs, and religious organizations.

A single-mother of twin boys, one now a judge and the other a corporate lawyer, she pursued her own education later in life. A New Jersey native, she earned degrees in Math and Spanish in state schools before completing a doctorate in educational administration at Teachers College of Columbia University, a path begun at the University of Massachusetts.

Her positions in public education have ranged from middle school math/science specialist to superintendent, and she served as a state assistant superintendent for New Jersey when it took over the Jersey City public schools. Her political action in these settings included getting bond issues passed, reconciling conflicting interests of ethnic and political groups, assuring accountability of school employees, and changing the prevailing ethos from self-serving bureaucracy to a student-focused system.

Since retirement in Sarasota, Dr. Wilcox’s activism has resulted in substantial accomplishment. The NAACP Leadership Academy gives African-American high school students training and opportunities not open to them in our school system and brings in corporate partners for mentoring; participants have returned to teach and work in Sarasota, strengthening the community. Another program recruited retired teachers to advocate for parents in dealing with the school system, to shield them from intimidation and help in solving problems. Another project helps develop independent educational programs for students in special education classes. And she considers her involvement with Bethlehem Baptist Church “the best,” exemplified by the Horizons Unlimited Christian Academy, a preschool for three- and four-year old children.

11 Jan (Wed): Tiger Bay Club: Health Care Program

Tiger Bay Club will present a program on health care with a panel to include SMH’s CEO Gwen McKenzie. Tom Tryon is being asked to be the moderator. Democrats need a large turnout of people who will defend the new health care law with applause and questions. Info: Art Levin at Artgator@aol.com

Club Elections in February; Nominating Committee Formed

Club elections are scheduled for February each year. If you review the list of officers and board members on page 2, you’ll see that each officer’s 2-year term in office is ending in 2012, as are the 3-year terms of three board members.

An additional board position must be filled for an unexpired term ending in 2014. Russ Battiata has resigned from the board to be closer to his job in Pinellas County. The board would like to thank him for his participation the past 8 months. We know Pinellas County will benefit from his involvement there.

In November, Mary Clupper appointed a nominating committee charged with naming a slate of candidates for each open position. The committee members are Tom Cook, JoAnne DeVries, Ed Henne, Jim Tate and Holly Treadway. If you are interested in running for a club office or board position, or want to recommend someone, contact one of the members of the nominating committee. To be eligible, a nominee must be a member for at least 45 days on the date the election takes place.
