MARCH LUNCHEON PROGRAM

Bill Cotter: "Same Sex Marriage, the Health Care Mandate & the U.S. Supreme Court"

Democrats living in Florida are often embarrassed by the politics of the state they call home. We have a history of controversies ranging from hanging chads, to disappearing touch-screen votes, to the election of a governor whose company was fined for massive Medicare fraud. And then there's the gerrymandering that sustains a Republican majority in Tallahassee despite the Democratic lead in voter registration.

In late March, we get to witness one more "brilliant" move by the state of Florida, as the Supreme Court listens to arguments to repeal key components of President Obama's Affordable Care Act. The Sunshine State is right in the thick of the proceedings with its State of Florida v. US Department of Health and Human Services suit.

We are fortunate that Bill Cotter, who has taught classes on the Supreme Court at the Pierian Spring Academy, will share his expertise on the arguments the Supreme Court will hear and his analysis of the potential outcome. He will also discuss what impact the Court may have on the same-sex marriage issue.

A Sarasota resident, Cotter's recent background includes chairing the advisory board for the Oak Foundation, an international philanthropy which funds projects in conservation, human rights, abuse, housing, learning disabilities, and other social justice issues. Prior to that he spent 21 years as President of Colby College in Waterville, Maine. He also worked on international programs for the Ford Foundation, and has lived in Nigeria, Colombia and Venezuela.

Join us on March 10th as Bill Cotter helps us to better understand the issues the Supreme Court will consider in these critical decisions.

LUNCHEON DETAILS: See back page

NOTE: The luncheon is at the Laurel Oak Country Club. Drinks will be available for sale at a bar near the luncheon meeting room.

Last Month: Edelin: A 2012 loss threatens women's rights

February luncheon speaker, Dr. Kenneth Edelin, both entertained and horrified attendees with personal anecdotes from his battle for women's reproductive rights over the past forty years. Edelin, an OB/GYN and past Board Chair of Planned Parenthood, left his audience with three points to take home with them:

1. Those who want to deny women reproductive rights will lie, stretch the truth and distort the language to get their way.
2. There is a resurgence in efforts to deny women access to abortion services and contraception and, ultimately, women's right to full control over their own lives.
3. We must activate everyone who cares about women and families to ensure a Democratic victory in 2012. Otherwise women will lose many of the rights they've won over the last 40 years.

Ken Edelin became nationally known when he was arrested, tried and convicted of manslaughter after he performed a legal abortion in Boston City Hospital in 1974. He recounted the story in his 2008 book, Broken Justice: A True Story of Race, Sex and Revenge in a Boston Courtroom.

He sees the strategies used successfully in his prosecution continuing to be used today. Anti-Choice forces humanize the fetus, insisting on calling it a baby, and they

What do we include in the newsletter?

Democrats have a lot to say – and the Board encourages club members to say it with articles or letters to the editor for our newsletter! Unfortunately, there is limited space. Dealing with this dilemma, the Board adopted the following list of policies and procedures:

Articles and letters to the editor from club members will be accepted on a space available basis using the following priorities:

1. Local information of immediate importance to club members
2. Articles or letters from members who have not written recently
3. Articles or letters relating to state issues.
4. Articles or letters relating to national issues.

Due to limited space, articles and letters should be written as concisely as possible (between 100 and 150 words) and once submitted, may be edited. Letters to the editor should contain statements of proposed action by the membership.

Submission Deadline:

Third Saturday of the month for the next issue

President's Column

Dear Members and Friends,

Thank you to everyone who attended our February luncheon with Dr. Kenneth Edelin. His topic couldn't have been timelier. When we invited him to speak, we didn't know that the health care regulation requiring employers to provide contraception as part of their coverage would be causing such a big controversy. Dr. Edelin's message to us was incredibly inspiring. It was a reminder that the fight may never end and we must stand together for our Democratic ideals and hold the line.

The night before the luncheon, I ran into Club member Carol Buchanan with Dr. Terrence Roberts, who was speaking at a fundraiser for the Alpha Phi Alpha Foundation the next day. I had done some research on Dr. Roberts when I heard he was coming to Sarasota and was sorry that I wasn't going to have the privilege of hearing him speak. Dr. Roberts is one of the group of nine African-American men and women known as the Little Rock Nine. In 1957, not long after the Supreme Court decision Brown v. the Board of Education, they courageously integrated Central High School in Little Rock. Since then Dr. Roberts has continued to devote himself to the fight for civil rights.

I was thrilled to get to meet him that Friday night and he came to my mind the next day as I listened to Dr. Edelin. I realized how fortunate we are to live in an area like Sarasota where we have the opportunity to hear and interact with such wonderful contributors and activists like Dr. Roberts and Dr. Edelin and many other local names that you are all familiar with. In the past few months we have been inspired by the eloquence of our Congressional candidate, Keith Fitzgerald, and the passion of the Florida Democratic Party Chair, Rod Smith. And our city was recently visited by Democratic National Chair, Debbie Wasserman Schultz, and by the First Lady, Michelle Obama. We may live in a red county, but Democrats and Progressives are not to be counted out.

Four years ago we watched in awe as Barack Obama not only won the presidency of the United States, but also won the state of Florida. He lost Sarasota County by 211 votes. We had won the important battle but, as a volunteer who had made phone calls and knocked on hundreds of doors while canvassing with fellow Obama for America (OFA) colleagues, I wanted more. I kept thinking that, if we had just knocked on a few more doors and made a few more phone calls, Sarasota County could have rallied its first Democratic presidential victory since 1944.

This time around we are poised for that victory. Democrats in Sarasota County are more organized and active than ever before. Thanks to the Tea Partiers and the insanity we have witnessed in Tallahassee and DC the past 3 years, we understand what is at stake. If President Obama doesn't win Sarasota County this year, the only reason will be that we didn't use every ounce of our energy and resources to help our Democratic organizations influence our friends and neighbors. On an OFA conference call this past week, Mrs. Obama reiterated that volunteers are the heart and soul of the 2012 campaign, just as they were in 2008. She said that, in addition to all the field work that has already started all over the state, we can never underestimate the power of one-on-one conversation.

The current redistricting map for our Congressional District (now to be the 16th CD), put our candidate, Keith Fitzgerald, in a very good position to take over Buchanan's seat. With the district about 48% Democratic, Vern can "go back to his used car lots full time in 2013," as Dr. Edelin put it. Keith has the backing of the DCCC which elevates his campaign to the national level. He is not a long shot in this race. He is the one to win it!

My plea to Sarasota Democrats is to leave your doubts behind. What needs to be accomplished in the next 8 months can be and will be accomplished. I'm already looking forward to the victory party that the Club will host the evening of November 6th.

The next important way to show your support is to buy your tickets for the Sarasota County Democratic Party's Kennedy King Dinner at Michael's on East on Sunday, March 4th. Visit their website for all the details at www.sarasotadems.org or call their office at 330-9400.

Democratically yours,

Mary

Jan Chester, Senior Vice President/External Affairs of Planned Parenthood of Southwest and Central Florida, and February luncheon speaker, Dr. Kenneth Edelin

From Your Membership Co-Chairs

Dear Democratic Club Members and Friends,

I want to thank all our guests (and, I hope, future members) who have been attending Democratic Club of Sarasota functions. Many guests fill out the Membership Applications and become members on the spot! We appreciate your support as we have an enormous amount of work to do in the upcoming months.

I also want to thank our loyal membership. We simply cannot do what we are doing in the community without your continuing support. Your membership dues and donations make it possible for us to participate in events throughout Sarasota County.

We recently participated in the West Coast Woman Expo where over 75 organizations mixed and mingled. For some reason our Democratic Club table was extremely popular. I'm not sure if was the Tootsie Rolls or the Obama 2012 bumper stickers we were giving away! We spoke to numerous folks who are committed to getting President Obama and Senator Nelson reelected as well as working for our local candidates.

The Club is collaborating with a new group called Latinos for Obama. We recently met with the leadership from the Latino community. We discussed our common goals, and began to identify activities to achieve them for the upcoming campaign. If you are interested in getting involved with this group (and speak Spanish) please let me know.

Our Club provided food trays for a Voter Registration drive in Newtown at local barber shops and beauty shops. We have made an ongoing commitment to participate in events in the African-American community.

I want to welcome Georgia Blotzer, a new member of the Club Board and my new Membership Co-Chair. Georgia is incredible and I am so happy (and grateful) that she will be joining me in building up our membership in the upcoming months. Thanks Georgia!

For Membership questions, please do not hesitate to contact either of us: JoAnne (joanne@sarasotadems.com) or Georgia (georgia@sarasotadems.com).

A Special Evening of Wine, Cheese & Politics with Jerry Springer: A Club Fundraiser

The Wine, Cheese & Politics meetings have become our most anticipated monthly event. In March, we will add a celebrity flair as we welcome Sarasota resident and avid Democrat — Jerry Springer — on Thursday, March 22.

We all know Jerry as the host of the tawdry daytime talk show, The Jerry Springer Show. But his resume also includes actor, television news anchor, and believe it or not — progressive political activist and elected official.

Jerry majored in political science at Tulane University and then received a law degree from Northwestern University in Chicago. Not long after graduating from law school, Jerry met Robert Kennedy at a dinner party and soon signed on to work on his presidential campaign.

After the blow of Kennedy's assassination, he joined the law firm of Frost and Jacobs in Cincinnati. While there, the 25-year-old Springer led the movement in Ohio to lower the voting age from 21 to 18, which resulted in his Senate Judiciary Committee testimony supporting ratification of the 26th Amendment to the Constitution.

Springer then ran for Congress in Ohio in 1970, almost beating the Republican incumbent, Donald Clancy. In 1971, he won a seat on the Cincinnati City Council and served five terms before becoming mayor at the age of 33, with the largest plurality in the city's history. He served two terms as Mayor.

After an unsuccessful bid for governor of Ohio in 1982, he was courted by several networks, ultimately signing with the Cincinnati NBC affiliate WLWT. As its anchor and managing editor, he won multiple Emmy Awards. His success in television news eventually led to The Jerry Springer Show and the rest is history.

A frequent guest and political commentator on CNN and other news networks, we have no doubt that Jerry will provide a thought-provoking and entertaining evening of political conversation.

The event is at 1350 Main Street in Downtown Sarasota at 6:30 pm. Reservations are required for this special event, as space is limited. Please make your reservations by e-mailing rsvp@sarasotadems.com or leaving a message at 404-4678. Admission is $40 for prepaid reservations and $45 for those paying at the door. To prepay, please mail your check made payable to the DCS to: Democratic Club of Sarasota, PO Box 51076, Sarasota, FL 34234.

Club Elections Postponed; Board Appointed

Democratic Club elections are supposed to be held at the February meeting, but the Democratic Club of Sarasota is so large that achieving the necessary quorum of 20% of the membership is always a challenge, one that was not met at our February luncheon.

Because the election could not be held in February, the previously-elected officers and board members followed the procedure outlined in the Club's Bylaws and filled vacant positions by appointment. Club elections will be held at the next meeting when there is a quorum.

The current officers and board members are as follows. The end of the term in office is also indicated.

President: Mary Clupper (2014)
 Vice President: JoAnne DeVries (2014)
 Corresponding Secretary: Tom Cook (2014)
 Recording Secretary: Holly Treadway (2014)

Board Members:

Georgia Blotzer (2015)
 Tom Brommage (2015)
 Pat Coville (2014)
 Ed Henne (2013)
 Helen Magill (2014)
 Sacha Rosenfeld (2013)
 Dick Stammer (2014)
 Jim Tate (2015)

Tom Brommage's name and bio were accidentally left out of the February issue.

Tom Brommage is a native New Yorker who has lived in Pennsylvania, New Hampshire, and Connecticut. After retiring from a career in food service operations management, he has lived in Sarasota for the past 7 years and contributes many hours volunteering for the Democratic Party.

Bill Tavolga: A Living Legacy

At 90, Bill Tavolga is still on staff at Mote Marine Lab as manager of its research program in sensory biology and behavior. A co-founder of the field of marine bio-acoustics, Bill's current specialization is hearing in herring.

Retiring early from teaching at City University of NY with a research lab at the American Museum of Natural History, Bill resumed work at Mote where he had been spending research time since its founding by fellow graduate student Eugenie Clark. His current work includes budget duties, program development, proposal reviews for granting agencies — much of the administrative work he aimed to avoid by retiring.

Bill developed Mote's first computer system after building his own computer from a Heath kit. He has written a Russian language word-processing program which he markets commercially. An ardent music lover, he now manages computer operations for Selby Library's Sarasota Music Archive, of which he is vice-president

The son of Russian musicians, Bill himself plays piano, although he foiled his father's plans for him to be a concert pianist. Summering in the Catskills, where his parents produced musical programs for hotels, he spent his childhood free time turning over rocks and making lists, much better preparation for a scientific career.

Bill also puts his computer skills to work producing name tags for Democratic Club events.

Last Month: The GOP war against women

demonize physicians, calling them baby killers. Intimidation is another strategy. Both Edelin's trial almost 40 years ago and Dr. George Tiller's assassination in 2009 made doctors think twice about providing abortions — even when medically necessary.

After the 2010 elections, as John Boehner was about to become Speaker of the House, he met with Randall Terry, the anti-abortion extremist who heads Operation Rescue. Terry pressed for a radical anti-abortion strategy that included defunding Planned Parenthood. The third bill introduced in the House under Boehner (HR 3) outlawed all taxpayer funding of abortions. Not only does that deny abortion coverage to Medicaid recipients, but also military women and federal employees.

The second bill introduced was to repeal the Affordable Care Act. Edelin characterized ACA as the single greatest advance in women's health care in 50 years because it covers annual exams, STD screening and contraceptives without a co-pay.

In the 14 months since the Republican "tsunami" of 2010, we've seen anti-woman and anti-choice measures introduced in Congress and in many states. "Personhood" laws would outlaw many forms of contraception. Ultrasound laws increase both the financial and emotional cost to women seeking abortions.

Here in Florida, a new Constitutional Amendment 6 will be on the November ballot. Not only will it prohibit public funding of abortions, but it will reduce women's Constitutional privacy protections.

And, in our Congressional district, Vern Buchanan's voting record has been distinctly anti-choice. He even voted to end Medicaid coverage of reproductive health care, including Pap smears, breast exams and family planning services.

A key element of the anti-choice strategy is to have us fight one of their onerous restrictions all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court where they expect to have the votes to overturn Roe v. Wade. If President Obama isn't re-elected, that's very likely to happen.

Edelin cited a strategy he and Pro-Choice affiliates used in 1989 to elect a pro-choice governor in Virginia. "IDEA." ID=Identify pro-choice voters, including pro-choice Republican women. E=Educate them on the issue. A=Activate them as supporters and voters.

The Republican war on the Affordable Care Act and reproductive rights is a women's rights issue. Edelin said that a woman should be the only person deciding her reproductive future — not a doctor, not a court, not the government. American women need to get serious about winning the 2012 election.
