

The US National Committee for UN Women presents

Lunch tables will be organized for DCS Members at the $60 per person rate and include the conference.

Please send your check made payable to "USNC - UN Women" to:

DCS
PO Box 51076
Sarasota, FL 34232

The Power of One

State, national and international powerbrokers share ideas on how one person or one organization can make a difference in the lives of women throughout the world

6.08.13

Become one of the inspired!

UN Photo/Ali Mustofa

UN Photo/Riccardo Gangale

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

$60 USNC-UN Women Members

$75 Non-members (Become a USNC-UN

Women Member on the day of conference and registration fee is only $60)

$15 Student

$40 evening cocktail reception (5:00–7:00 PM)

Preregistration is required.

Sign up now as space is limited.

For information or to register,

XXXXXX go to www.unwomen-usnc.org

or call XXXXXXXX

DCS MEMBERS SEND CHECK TO CLUB TO GET $60 PER PERSON
PRICE.

SPONSORS:

NUOVO
SALONS • SPAS

Morgan Stanley

FIRST SECURITY INVESTMENTS, INC.
of Southwest Florida

8:30 AM-3:00 PM

Lido Beach Club, 700 Ben Franklin Drive
Sarasota, Florida
941.388.2161

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Continental Breakfast & Kick-off
Speaker – Dr. Raymonda Burgman,
Associate Provost, New College
- Session 1: Power of One Organization (Panel of socially conscious organizations who have implemented programs that have empowered others)
- Session 2: Power of One Individual (Panel of individuals who have impacted women's lives in such countries as Pakistan, India, Bangladesh, Guatemala, and Sierra Leone)
- Lunch with Keynote Speaker - Maria
Leticia Guelfi, UN Women Program
Specialist, Latin America and the Caribbean Section
- Session 3: Power of Youth (Round table discussion about how young people can and do make a difference in their own community)
- Session 4: Powerful Positions Abroad (Panel of professionals who have served in various capacities abroad share the opportunities in and requirements for international work experience)